WESCO Distribution - Canada, Inc.

Your Automation Partner

Your Objectives

Whatever your objectives WESCO can help you achieve it. Our specialists provide a wide variety of services to help keep your project on track and ensure a cost-effective solution.

- Reduced Down Time
- Increased Throughput
- Tighter Process Control
- Reduced Waste
- Improved Safety
- Lower Maintenance Costs

WESCO Solutions

We service discrete manufacturing and industrial process applications as well as OEM's, System Integrators and Specifiers through 50 branches across Canada.

- Expert product assistance from concept through to operation
- Support for a wide assortment of leading products and manufacturers
- Design support and project cost estimation
- Product availability from your local branch
- Installation and after sales service
- Product application training
- Communication support for multiple protocols

Products

WESCO provides everything you need for industrial automation, process control and motor control applications. Look to WESCO to fill your complete bill of materials for a project or for plant maintenance and operations.

WESCO's automation specialists provide expert technical assistance, from preliminary design to operation. You can rely on WESCO for a wide product offering, local availability and unbiased product advice.

Opportunities

The cost of implementing automation is dropping.

The lower cost of microprocessors and the availability of smarter components mean your automation dollar goes further today. WESCO supports a broad range of cost effective PLC's, HMI's and iPC's. We also offer best-in-class devices that deliver the key features you need to optimize your project. WESCO's $4.0B in sales mean we have the leverage, (and the low cost of operations) to ensure competitive costing.

Open communication protocols give you more options.

Open automation means you are no longer locked into one supplier's solution. This means more selection and access to more cost-effective options. WESCO not only has the products but the expertise. Our specialists are trained to support all the common industrial communication protocols including: Industrial Ethernet, DeviceNet, Modbus and Profibus. We can assist you with your product selection and ensure communication compatibility on everything we sell.

Distribution Without Boundaries

At WESCO, distribution is more than servicing your request. We help you meet your growth and productivity goals through creative logistics solutions. Challenge us with your supply chain headaches and we will rise to the occasion. WESCO delivers:

- a wide assortment of programs from kanban systems, to kitting services.
- a proven national account service process that helps Canada's leading companies reduce MRO procurement costs.
- a complete suite of e-commerce tools to establish a seamless supply chain relationship.
- a world class distribution infrastructure to ensure stocking support and reliable deliveries
- a local branch with the can-do attitude to meet your specific requirements.
